Fellow Legionnaires,

I am proud and excited to announce that the Department of New Hampshire will host a two-day American Legion College on November 16 & 17, 2024 at Post 47 in Rollinsford NH. The application and itinerary for the upcoming Legion College can be found on the Department of New Hampshire American Legion website. If you are in a leadership position within your Post, District or Department I encourage you to attend. I encourage everyone who wishes to increase their leadership potential to enroll and participate in this incredible opportunity. You will gain a valuable perspective on the Leadership opportunities within the American Legion and increase your knowledge of how the American Legion works. To facilitate your learning experience, please have a laptop available and be registered on mylegion.org.

Please reach out to me at MyronPost47@gmail.com if you any questions or comments

Enthusiastically your Comrade
